"I am the WAY the truth and the life." (Jn. 14:6)

Sunday Worship

January 27, 2019

9:30 a.m. Education Hour

10:30 a.m. Worship

Rev. Rob Hughes

We are starting a new feature for the Blast. Articles will be featured from members of the congregation. If you would like to contribute an article, please let Pastor Rob or the office know.

Each week, The Broadway Blast highlights several people in need of special prayers for healing or strength in the midst of a health concern. Please pray for:

- Jean Bell
- Ron Hardy
- Kathy Hiatt
- Mary Frances Sneed
- Sally Zinevich

I pray when I need or want something. I study God's Word through Bible studies, occasionally. I don't pray consistently, and I don't study God's Word consistently. I know a lot of us can say the same thing.

I grew up in church. I was baptized as a baby in the Lutheran Church. We very seldom missed a Sunday. There were times as a child that I would lay in bed Sunday morning and think that maybe Mom and Dad would forget to wake us up for church. They didn't! My parents were the ones in my life that gave me the start I needed in my love for God.

I want to be consistent in my attention to God. I want to lean on Him always, not just when I don't think I can handle things on my own. I am going to try to put my time with God first in this new year. I want to set time aside to pray and study God's Word. I don't want to lay in bed and say my prayers and fall asleep during them. I don't want to put off my Bible study because, "I just don't have time".

My dad and mom always told us kids that your week goes better when you start it in church with God. They were right. I know each day will go better, as well, when I put God first.

Join me in giving God more time in your daily life.
