Youth Home Christmas Program

Rev. Rob Hughes

Let us know your accomplishments and joys; baby on the way, baby born, anniversary, awards, new job, new home, child is honored, fun trip taken, etc.

We would love to put them in the Blast to share with your church family.

- Congratulations to Marlene & Mark Sheldon on the birth of their great grandson, Weston James on October 17. The proud parents are their granddaughter, Katie & Harley.

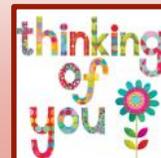

- Messiah rehearsals are meeting at Broadway. The performance will be on Sunday, Dec. 2 at 3:00 p.m.

Each week, The Broadway Blast highlights several people in need of special prayers for healing or strength in the midst of a health concern.

Please pray for:

- Jack Robinson
- Mary Frances Sneed

Show Me Youth Home will present their Christmas Program to Broadway on Sunday, November 25 in the 10:30 am worship service. Please join us!

Crosswind

Listen

Stop. Listen!

Do you hear it?

The shimmying vine

And fluttering leaves

To the rhythm of the wind.

Look.

Look here!

Do you see it?

The dancing light

And rolling shadows

On the face of the cross.

Not the sounds of

Whirring, clicking, hissing machines

But the wind.

Not the sight of

Whizzing steel nor standing brick

But the cross.

In this glass

Breaking wind, the Holy Spirit,

Vacant cross, the risen Christ.

Our home, our road, the way,

Our life support system.

A crosswind.

—Tom Davis

The stained glass window in the Westminster Room was lovingly crafted by Mike Robinson and the preceding "Crosswind" was written by Tom Davis for Mike.

If you have not had the opportunity to look at the stained glass "creation," you may want to do so with this poem in hand. Truly, a sight to behold. Thanks, Mike and Tom.
